

Shotover Moonlight Mountain Marathon

Exclusive Heli - Race Adventure Package – Ben Lomond Station, Moke Lake, Queenstown

If you are keen for a little more adventure over the race weekend – look no further! How does a 4WD adventure to a remote Mountain Lodge before enjoying a hearty dinner and pre-race banter with likeminded others and an awesome Heli Ride over the course to the start line the following morning sound to you?!

Ben Lomond Lodge & Chalets, Ben Lomond Station

Friday 19th February 2016

5:45pm Meet at the Ben Lomond Woolshed, Moke Lake (Race Finish) before being transported via 4wd vehicles to the remote Ben Lomond and Moonlight Lodges in the heart of the Ben Lomond Station. This journey will take approx 30min whereby you'll get to experience your first glimpses of the event courses.

6:15pm Arrive at the Mountain Lodges and welcomed by your hosts John and Ginny Foster before enjoying a hearty dinner and banter around the fire and relaxing in the lounge with a beer or wine whilst John briefs you on what you can look forward to on race day...

Some opt for an early night whilst others like to relax by the fire or enjoy a game of pool with light music in the background for a little while longer...

Saturday 20th February 2016

An early morning wakeup call

6:00am Breakfast time! If you've still got room for brekkie after the previous night's dinner- tuck in for another hearty feast before getting ready for your heli transfer to the start line.

7:00am The first Heli Transfers to the start line begin to your chosen start line. Here you'll have an opportunity to check out the course and see lots more of what you have to look forward to. Whilst you're on your way to the start line your personal items will be transported to the finish line.

Upon arriving at the start line you'll have plenty of time to warm up and pop to the loo before the final race briefing at the start line in Skippers Canyon.

8:00am What you've all been waiting for – race time and Gods Country!
